OF 1986

Alma Mater

In our hearts there is a picture,
Shining bright and true,
It's a picture of our high school,
Our Dear Gold and Blue.

For your honor we shall struggle
On the Road of Fame
Gratefully, dear Essex High School
Singing loud your name.

Though the years that go before us,
Dim our memory,
Recollections of our school days,
There will always be.

SCHOOL DAY MEMORIES

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.
Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.
We hope friends will keep in touch
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.
We think of kindergarten
And our first day,
Now we've reached the end
We are going away.
How do you say good-bye
To friends who mean so much?
Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?
You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending —
Think a new life has begun.

These last years have been the most trying and finally, it's over. Thanks for my survival through them goes firstly to my God, Jehovah, the Comforter. My loving family has my thanks along with my close friends Tina, Jennifer, Jason, and Sharece. May we always remember that: Jehovah's blessing makes us rich with no pain. — Proverbs 10:22

The time has come to say good-bye to my high school days. I will remember all the fun I have had in the past four years. To all my friends, I wish you all the best of luck, let no man discourage you and try to tell you you're wrong; you know what is right and you will succeed. To my Mother and Father, well, I finally made it, but I know I wouldn't have without you. I'll love you both forever. To my sister, you mean a lot. Jovan, you made a big change in my life. You won't understand now, I love you very much and will always be there for you.

As our nations youth you will be facing a complex future — one that will demand diverse skills —

Our complex society will require leadership, communication, and job skills that we have tried to provide for you during your high school years.

Establish your goals and priorities and continue to use the educational system to strengthen all aspects of your life.

"Learning to love yourself is the greatest love of all . . . "

Dear Graduates,

I want no less for you, than I want for myself. I want you to be independent, responsible, and productive; caring and concerned; self-motivated and self-confident. This will mean years of striving and challenges, but it will also mean years of satisfaction and accomplishments.

Along your way, I ask that you always respect the beliefs and feelings of others. Once you attain "the greatest love," this will become easier.

My impact upon your lives has been minimal, but that never lessened my obligation to provide you with the best academic environment I possibly could.

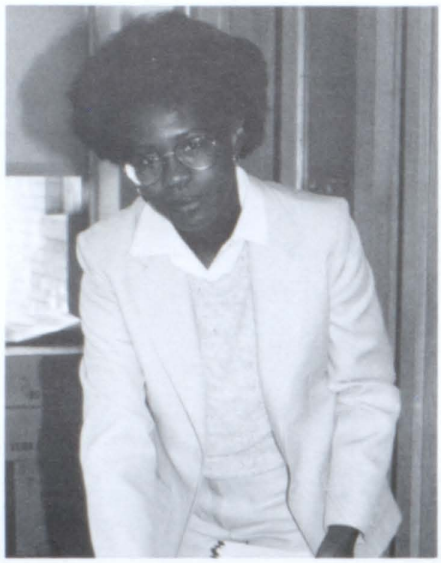

Good Luck to Each of You.

. . . A friend is a person
A great deal like you
But someone who also
Is quite different, too.
A friend catches on
And knows just what you mean —
Not only your words
But the thoughts in between.
The times you're in trouble
A friend strings along
And stands by especially
When you are wrong!
A friend never judges
The things that you do
Or says with raised eyebrows
"Oh no, how could you?!"
The love of a true friend
Is frequently shown
By how they will sometimes
Just leave you alone!
Though these are a few things
That friends often are
The full meaning of "friend"
Is much more by far!
For all the world's words
From beginning to end
Can't answer the question
Of "What Is A Friend?"

We, the ATHENA Yearbook Staff of 1986, dedicate this page to Miss Franks as a remembrance and token of our appreciation. Her work and patience is defined by the excellence of our yearbook.

When all hope was lost for us with the departure of our former advisor, Miss Franks willingly took on the responsibility of handling all the necessary procedures to make our 1986 ATHENA a successful reality.

Miss Franks, you will always remain in our hearts, not only for caring, but for the memories captured on these cherished pages.

PLEASE ACCEPT OUR HEARTFELT "THANK YOU."

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of June, 1986, being of almost unsound mind, having fulfilled the prescribed high school course, do hereby make public and declare this to be our last will and testament hereby revoking any former bequests made by other classes heretofore.

We, the class of 1986, hereby leave the faculty members the following:

Mr. Polito — a Batman suit and cape; a subscription to PLAYBOY that just might enable him to smile more often

Miss Alexander — six more hands to write ISS letters; less rules; our senior lounge; our heartfelt thanks for her caring, compassionate attitude and determination to get this school back on the right track

Mrs. Accaria — her own opera house; dinner with Luciano; a ladder so she can look her students in the eye

Ms. Ali — straight-leg jeans; a new personality

Mrs. Bailey — membership to a health spa; less time in the principal's office

Mrs. Buccelli — new equipment that works; better-tipping customers; a private paramedic unit for the customers

Cafeteria — new menus; classes at the Culinary Institute Of America

Mr. Cathcart — a corner to hide in for when he turns bright red; a year's supply of diapers for his baby girl; destruction of the "big, blue ball"

Custodial Staff — more fix-it kits; air fresheners; softer toilet tissue — and more of it!!!

Mrs. Frank — a lifetime supply of Midol; a new supply of ice packs

Miss Franks — a mini skirt; high heels; a revealing blouse with a low neckline; seniors with school spirit; a longer fuse for her temper; P-A-T-I-E-N-C-E, lots of patience!!!

Miss Fries — a maid to clean her storage room; new jokes

Mr. Fusco — a wife; a case of Visine; new sneakers; a 1986 get-out-and-push mobile

Miss Green — a pack of gum that won't stick to her braces; singing lessons

Guidance Department — our old counselors back!!!

Mr. Helmstaedter — a class that will show him some respect; a designer suit

Mrs. Iannone — a dance with every male senior; a day when she actually loses her temper; a microphone; dinner with the Beach Boys; a purse

Mr. Kuzik — penmanship lessons

Ms. Lynch — an up-to-date biography section; a whip and chair for hall duty

Mrs. Mahon — a quieter intercom system; our thanks for putting up with us for four long years

Miss Marinaro — a leading role on DYNASTY; a tape recorder so that she can hear herself talk and talk and talk; new fake nails

Mr. Paznek — a sense of humor and a smile

Mrs. Riley — a sergeant's uniform and a class filled with PHC's

Mrs. Roberts — a job that will allow her to smile more often

Security Guards — a radar system that will keep intruders out of the building; a physical fitness exam

Mr. J. Simonson — a single life for all the young ladies; one hour of teaching sex-ed to the senior girls

Mr. Ullman — plaid underwear to match his trousers; a denim suit

Mrs. Wood — a class filled with truly "advanced" students

Juniors — our old cheat notes; the ability to pay for your boosters on time; the privilege of being "SENIORS" and good luck with all the responsibility that goes along with that title

Dear Seniors:

The first thing to remember is that no person — absolutely no one — has final authority over your destiny but you. You may honor or respect a parent or a close friend, but the closest friend you will ever have is yourself. You must be a friend to yourself first, you must respect yourself first, you must be a success with yourself before you can be a success with others. The greatest treasure you will ever have is your self-image, a good opinion of yourself, and you must never let anyone take this away from you, no matter who it may be. If anyone does, he is opinionated and wants you to live his life, not your own.

Of course, you might listen to words of advice from a parent or friend; but in the final analysis, you must make the decision of what you want to be, if what you want to be is within your capabilities and your training, if what you want to be doesn't mean stepping on other people's toes. Go toward your goals aggressively, refusing to let anyone steer you from your course, because you must believe in your goals and you must drive to reach them.

Your goals, your parents' goals, your friends' goals are different. You must do the thing you feel you have to do; and you must apply the power. It is another way of saying that you must let your belief in yourself work for you, not against you. You must choose your career because you believe in it. Never choose a career to suit someone else. It is the beginning of failure and unhappiness. Respect the integrity of others, but respect your own integrity as well. You are the master of your own destiny.

DEAR RETTA & PEACHES:

To the making of many books there is no end, and much devotion to them is wearisome to the flesh. Of this we are sure you are aware.

As far as secular education goes, probably the two of you will put your books away, but there is one book that we hope you will never put away, in fact, we hope it will be the guide that you will live by. That is God's word, the Bible.

Never lose sight of the prize, the prize of life under Jehovah God's kingdom.

DEAR MOM,

I FINALLY DID IT!!! I just want to thank you for seeing me through all of this. I LOVE YOU FOR IT!!! Even when I didn't believe in myself, you gave me that extra get-up-and-go. It payed off. You believed in me when it seemed that I would never find my way. You always gave me everything I wanted, even when my wants were silly and immature. I could write a book describing how much you have given me, but I only have a page — SMILE!!! I want to make you the proudest mother in the world, I LOVE YOU SO MUCH!!!

All my years at Essex County H.S. have been great. The reason I'm leaving is something called "fate." My four years here have been hard, but it beats the hell out of being behind bars. Through all the years of sweat and pain, I look back on all the knowledge I've gained. All my years here have been a lot of fun. Just look at all the knowledge and battles I've won! For a few years I just sat in a daze — I wish I could go back and make those straight A's!!! With my pen, I wrote on the walls — and with my fists, I fought in the halls. To my favorite teacher who was never mean, I thank her for her loving understanding, her name is Miss Green. It was TONYA, JOYCE, VICKY, MADELINE, and ANGELIQUE — we were as one, yet very unique. At graduation there will be many tears, especially when we look back on freshmen, sophomore, and junior years! And as I leave this thing called SCHOOL, I leave my sisters, Terry and Yvonne Rogers, to rule. As I step out into the real world, I now realize that I'M NOT MAMA'S LITTLE GIRL!!!

MONA

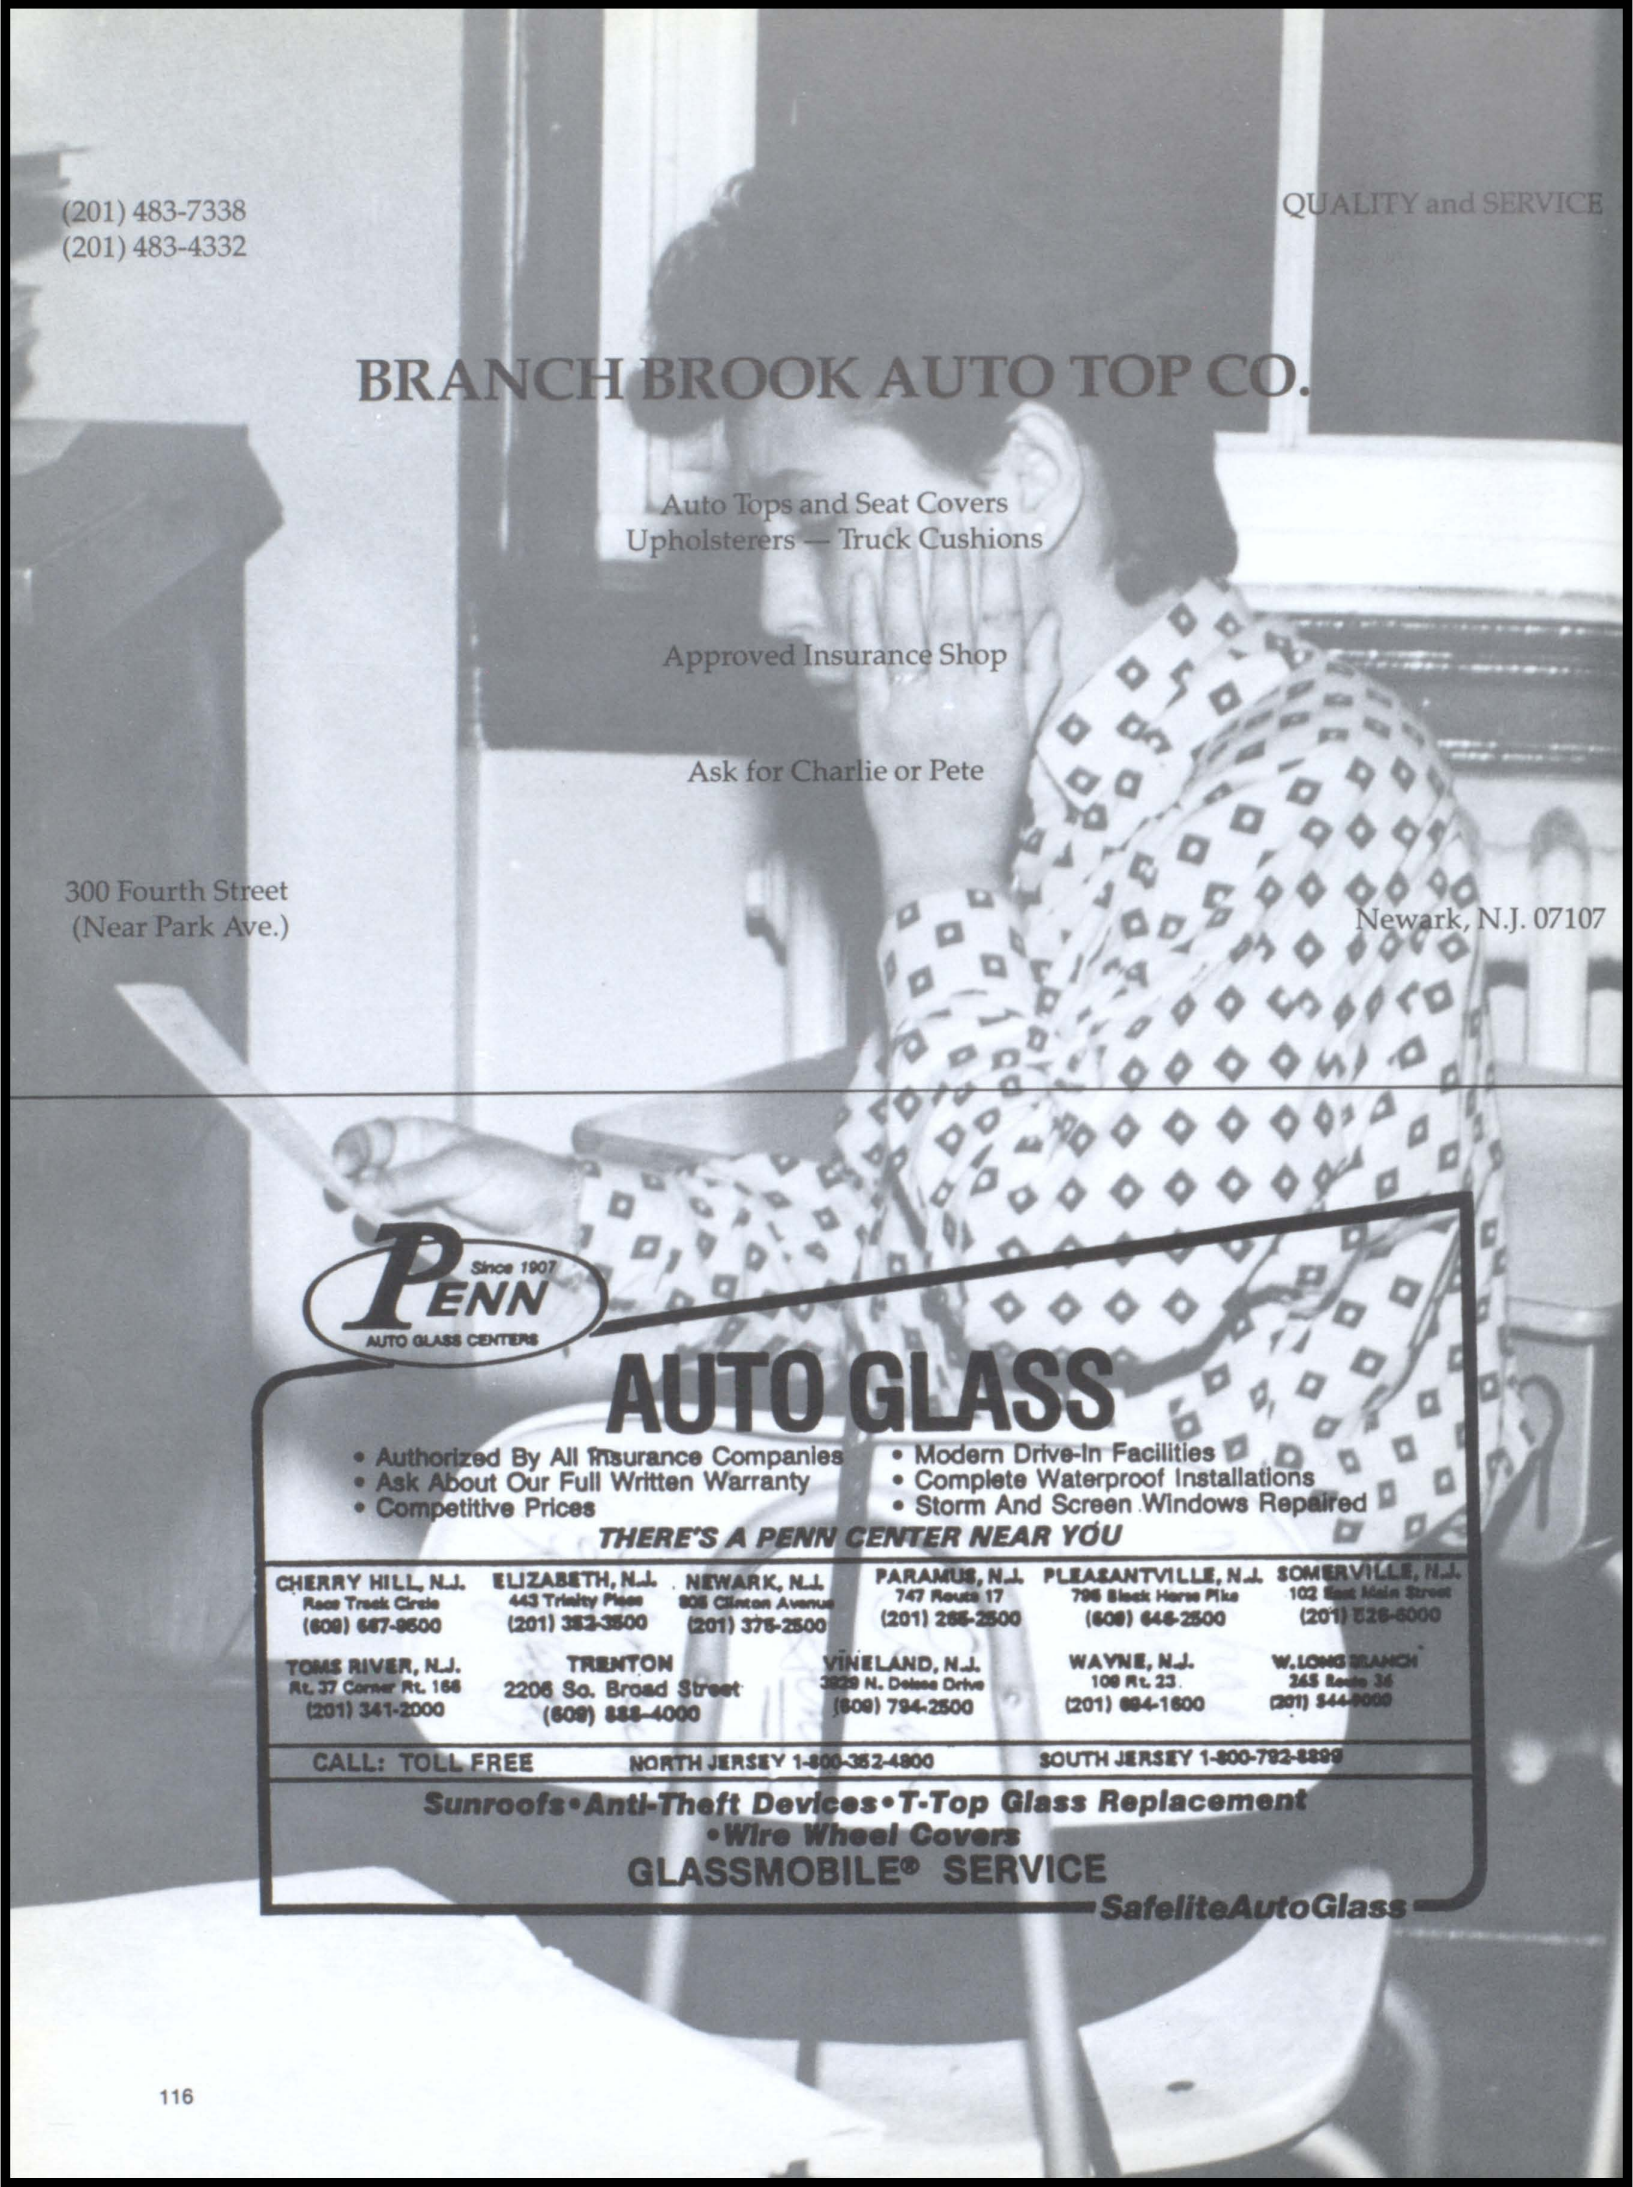

When we first met at a friend's wedding, we drank, dined and danced. There was a spark of instant liking for one another. We then took it one day at a time, slowly aging our love for each other to perfection. That was a year ago, even now, you still shed your sweetness day and night. Your eyes seem to catch the sunshine when you look at me. Words can't describe what we both feel, but we both know the precious secret of love, for love is not only a word. MONA, I truly love you and one day you may be the happiest woman alive.

I love you just as I always will — FOREVERMORE.

Dear Sister Marilyn:

I love you very much and I miss you. I hope you are fine. Marilyn, don't ever change your ways of being little sister, and always serve Jehova in any kind of situation that you find in yourself. Sometimes I feel sad because I wish I were like you, kind and loving for the way that you trust mami, the way you speak to others. I feel disappointed in myself when I can't be like that, but I guess that's alright. I feel embarrassed at times to show my feelings to you or others, I don't know why, but that's alright, I guess. Maybe, I'll give you this letter, maybe I won't. You'll probably read it someday, I really don't care if you read this letter as long as you don't tell me because it would hurt my feelings knowing that you go into my notes.

You are my sunshine even though you don't know it. May you always remain the same in the matter of confidence with mom and especially Jehovah.

Love you always,

your sister,

TO "TWEETY,"

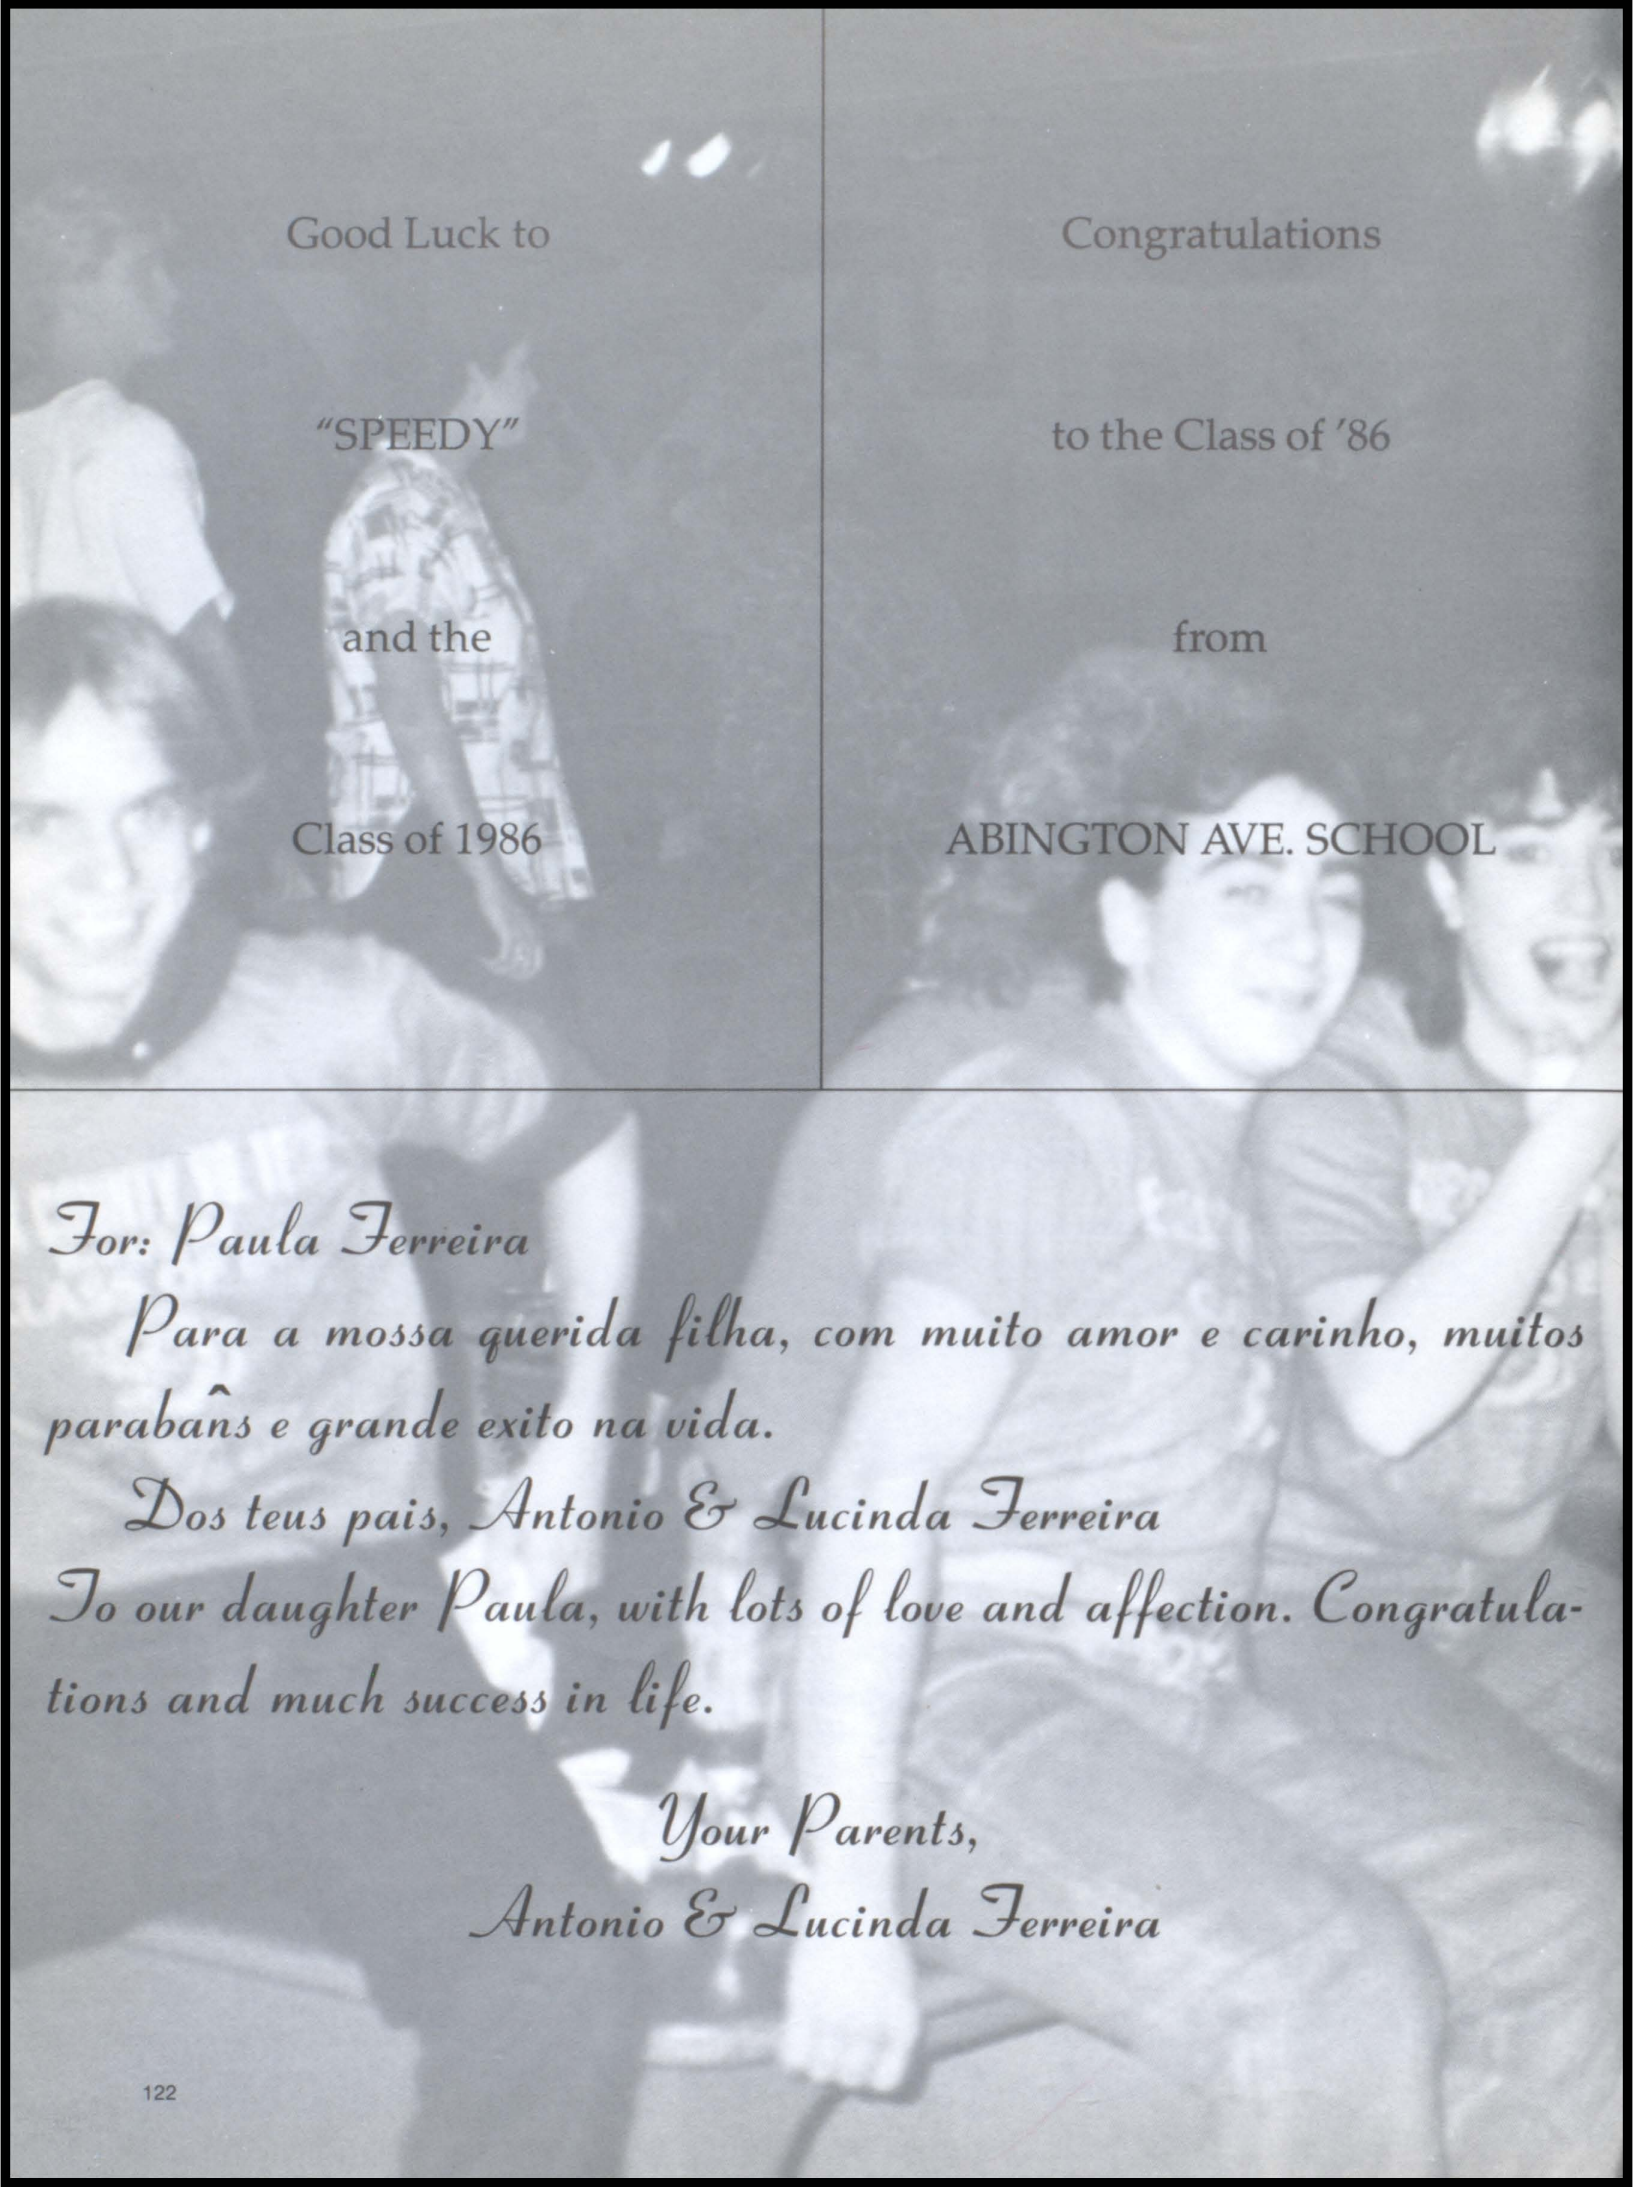

The value of a trusting friend
I never really knew
Until I chanced one lucky day
To find a friend like you.

It seems to guide my every step
And ever deed I do
To know that I've a loyal friend
To tell my wishes to.

For friendship brings a state of mind
That manifests a peace,
A warming glow of happiness,
A meaningful release.

If friendship strengthens as it grows,
The years that are to be
Shall be especially blessed, friend,
With joys for you and me.

THIS IS YOUR PROUDEST HOUR

. . . . . Culminating a period in your life you will always want to remember. As your official photographer, we feel elated to have been able to document this cherished era with photographs pulsating the very life you lived - the very thoughts you spread - the very feeling you so warmly and sincerely shared. This reality though captured in a split second will be an everlasting record for posterity.

The future holds many events for you that you will want to remember - Please feel free to call upon us for all of your photographic needs.

DEAR MICHELLE

"Life's Dearest Treasure"

"One of life's dearest treasures" is a girl who's kind and true
a girl who loves you as you are and thinks the world of you.
"One of life's dearest treasures" is a girl who's always there a girl who reaches out for you with tenderness and care.
"One of life's dearest treasures" is a girl who tries her best
a girl who never lets you down, like so many of the rest.
MICHELLE, you are my "DEAREST TREASURE," and I hope you will always see how much I really love you, and how much you mean to me.
From the One Who Loves You Always,

ROCKY

To: JUANITA PADILLA

It has been a wonderful experience seeing how you have been through the changes from a child into a beautiful and talented young lady. I always remember your first day of school in 1974, when you walked into my first grade classroom. I have been very fortunate of being close to follow you along for all these twelve years. Juanita, you have come a long way. There will be many more challenges in your life, but I'm sure that with your determination and courage you will come out triumphant. Always remember that there is someone by your side in case you need a helping hand. Follow your heart and strive for the best. You can do it. May God bless you always.
